1. Antibiotic use for respiratory tract infections in primary care and the wider community, helping to counteract antibiotic resistance.

2. The Global Respiratory Infection Partnership (GRIP) is an international group of healthcare professionals committed to reducing inappropriate antibiotic use.

3. Opinions represent those of the Global Respiratory Infection Partnership (GRIP) and are not necessarily the views of Reckitt Benckiser as the sponsor.

